Take control with Transicon

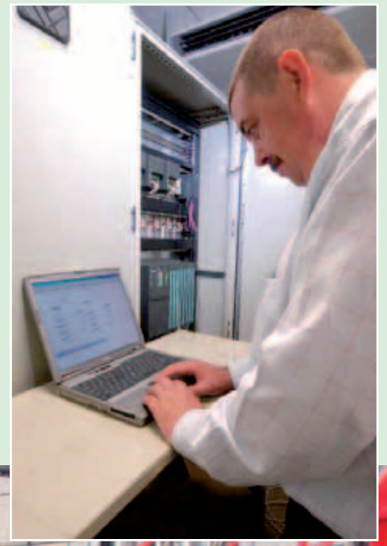
With a pedigree spanning more than 40 years, Transicon has established itself as a leader in the field of electrical control, drive and automation systems.

The company offers a complete range of management, consultancy, design, manufacture, installation and commissioning services.

With its wealth of in-house drives and automation expertise, Transicon provides state-of-the-art control systems to fulfil the most demanding requirements of customers in the utilities, process and automation industries.

- Consultancy and project management services, delivering cost-effective solutions for process optimisation.
- Systems analysis and on-site diagnostics.
- Design and applications engineering to internationally recognised standards.
- Custom-built or standard systems, software, panels, cabinets and consoles.
- Engineering and manufacture to BS EN IS09001:2000 standard.



- Installation and commissioning - to customers' individual requirements.
- Comprehensive after sales service - full support, with customised care packages available, if required.
- Turnkey solutions - complete service from initial site survey to installation, test and commissioning.
- Special product development - custom designed and engineered solutions to meet the most demanding application requirements.
- Operating a policy of continuous quality improvement.

TRANSICON
TRANSICON
TRANSICON
TRANSICON
TRANSICON
TRANSICON